1964 GOVERNOR

VOL. III

CHARLES B. AYCOCK HIGH SCHOOL PIKEVILLE, N.C.

FOREWORD

Door after door—key after key—at last, the beginning of a successful future and a cherished past.

The Doors of Knowledge and Scholarship are hard to open, but with the right keys, teachers and study, it is simple. To open the Doors of Popularity and Leadership, we must have the keys called friends and ability.

In high school, there are so many doors—so many unopened locks—and so many keys. Only by choosing the right keys for the right locks on the right doors, can we really begin a successful future.

The key to unlock the Door of Past is in this book, THE GOVERNOR. This beginning of the future will soon become reality and then past. Today, this is not the Past; but Tomorrow, Today will be the cherished Past.

VINCIT OMNIA VERITAS

A unique sight viewed from afar shows a beautiful structure along a sloping hillside. This structure is our school, Charles B. Aycock. The love and pride of all concerned are shown throughout the entire campus from the front steps to the back portals. Our hope, our future, and our destination greatly depend on this one construction which we prize so immensely.

PRINCIPAL

Our third school year of operation closes with a note of happiness and with the knowledge that we have accomplished our planned objectives.

Congratulations for a task well done and for allowing me the opportunity to work with such a co-operative group of students and staff members.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATION

Elton Aycock, Mrs. C. B. Strickland, Mosley Davis, Worth Aycock, Luby Casey.

The key to a better education starts with a good board of administrators. Most students do not realize that the county board forms school policies, keeps the school provided with necessary equipment, and lends its help to the smooth operation of the school. Sincerest thanks to these people who devote much of their time and energy to improve our school.

Superintendent
R. S. PROCTOR

R. S. Proctor is a man well known and loved by the Wayne County School students, because of his devoted work for them.

ALL HAD A MERRY TIME

Mr. Boykin's fourth time to the refreshment table.

NEW YORK TRIP —

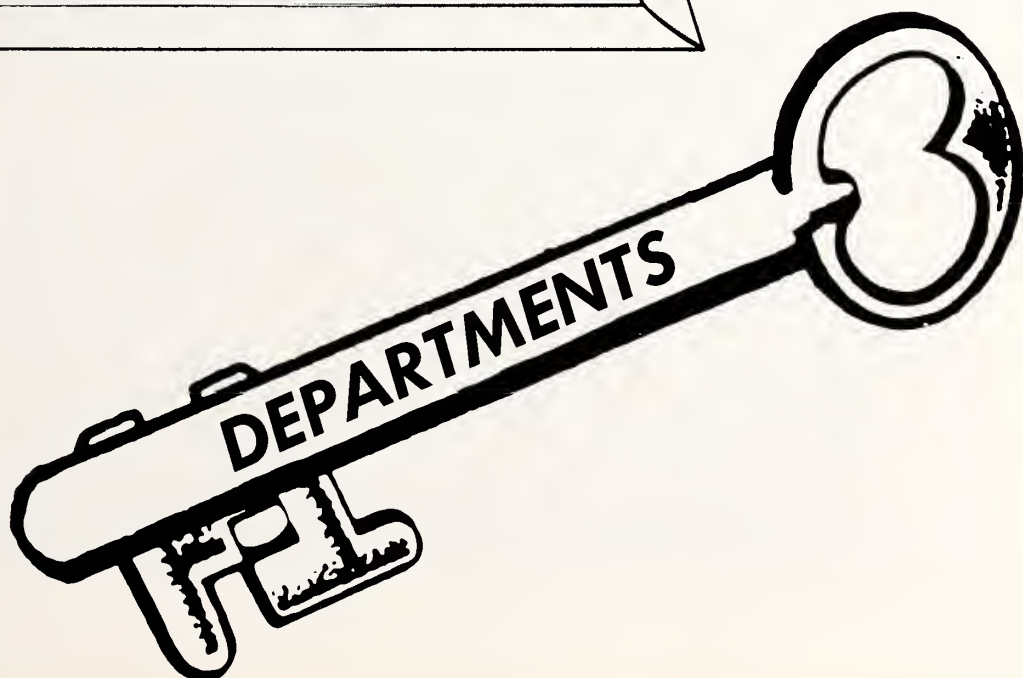

J. K. Horne clowns around the hotel room in New York. He is always the life of the party.

SENIORS EXPERIENCES

Frankie tries a new thing on the long bus ride to New York. Let's hope he did not get sick.

JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT

This class publishes our newspaper, the Educator, under the supervision of Mr. Eugene Roberts.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Since November, 1963, teenagers must have a driver's training course to get their license, so this year Aycock has a full time instructor, Mr. Mason.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Steve enjoys the class.

Mrs. Scott's Family Relations class studies personality developments and discuss the various problems of teenagers.

Our Social Studies Department also includes class in Civics and World Geography.

Mr. Atkinson's Sociology class has many panel discussions which makes the class more interesting.

Darrell answers the question.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Mr. Joyner does interesting work in the lab.

Miss Noble's chemistry class experiments are interesting as well as thought provoking.

Mr. Keel points out the basic fundamentals of the microscope to two of his biology students.

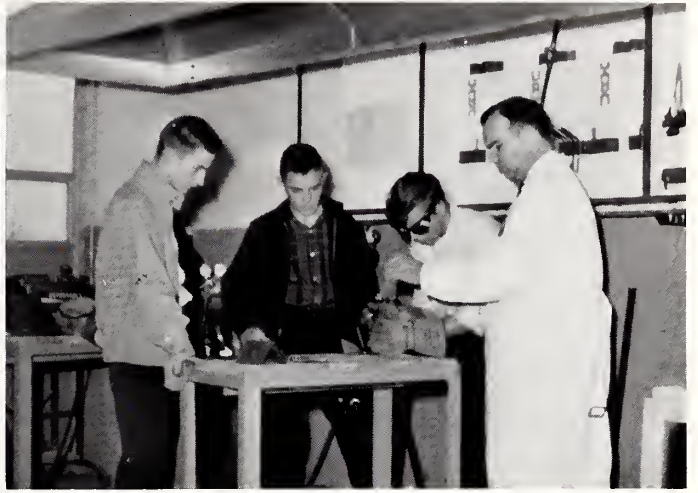

Mrs. Griffin describes the functions of an oscillator.

AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT

Mr. Hargrove surveys work.

Students work in Agriculture shop.

Math is important in agriculture also.

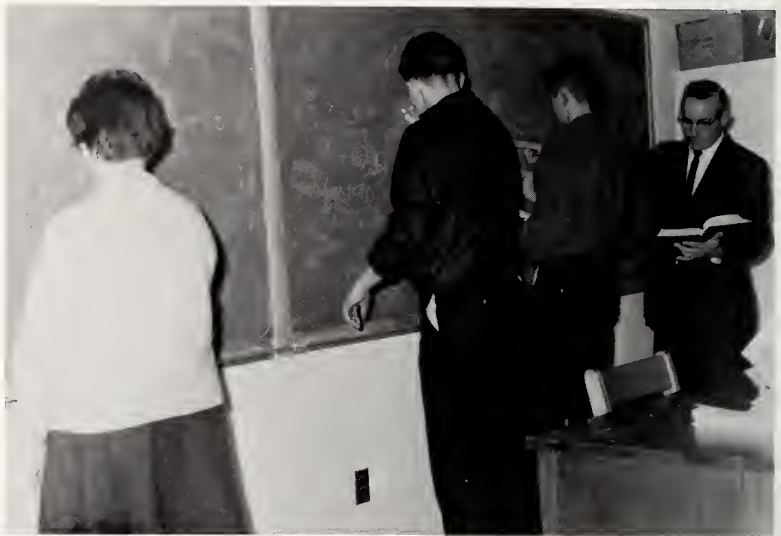

STUDENTS ENJOY INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The proper tools are necessary for drawing.

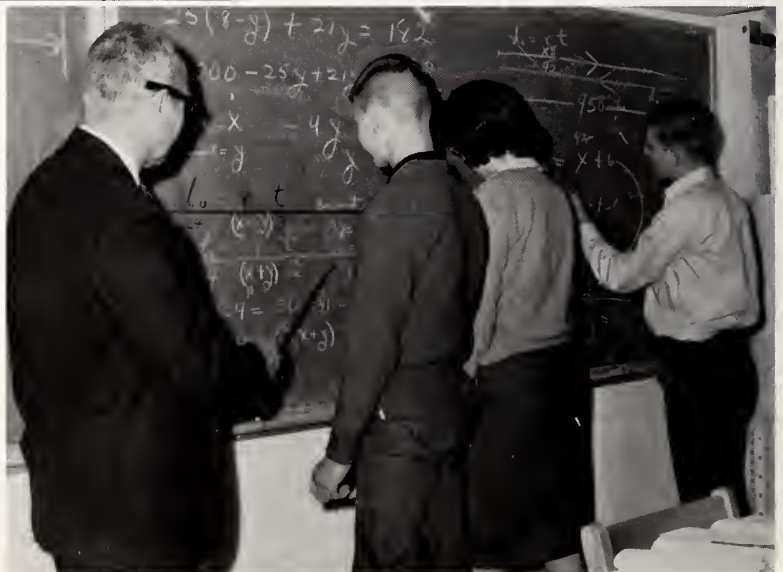

MATH DEPARTMENT

Students review homework at the blackboard.

Mr. Joyner lets James explain geometry to the class.

Boardwork is important in the classroom.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The band, under Mr. Thigpen's direction, performed during the half-time at all home football games this season. These performances were often amusing and they were enjoyed by everyone.

Each student receives individual instruction.

There is also a beginners chorus class and a junior band in the music department.

The Advanced Chorus class is composed of the Falconairs and Falconettes, who make many public appearances throughout the school year.

This is the class Mr. Thigpen really enjoys.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

"Supervising several sewing machines is rather a difficult job," says Miss Theresa Kornegay, Home Ec. teacher.

THESE ARE OUR FUTURE HOMEMAKERS.

"Skill and concentration are needed in learning to cook," Mrs. Elizabeth Scott tells her Home Ec. class.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

Maps play an important part in Mr. Boykin's U.S. History class.

Mr. Boykin tries to find the river.

THE CURRENT EVENTS OF TODAY.

Mr. Gooding explains the world situation to his World History students.

Mr. Gooding points out the important places as Warren Van Hoy listens.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

"We will find a way or make a way in Latin," says Mr. Snipes.

BONJOUR LES ÉLÈVES

Foreign language is made more interesting to Mrs. Cox's French students by using the language lab.

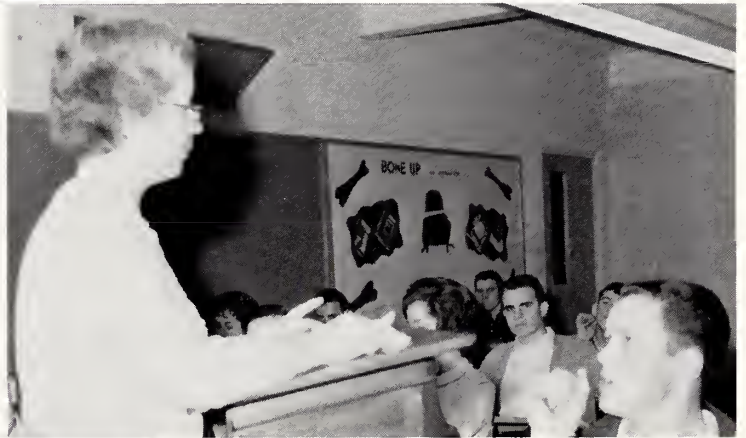

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Green helps Seniors with diagramming.

Mrs. Wilson explains American Literature to Juniors.

Mr. Browning "points out" basic fundamentals to Sophomores.

Freshmen learn to appreciate the need of English under Mr. Gillikin.

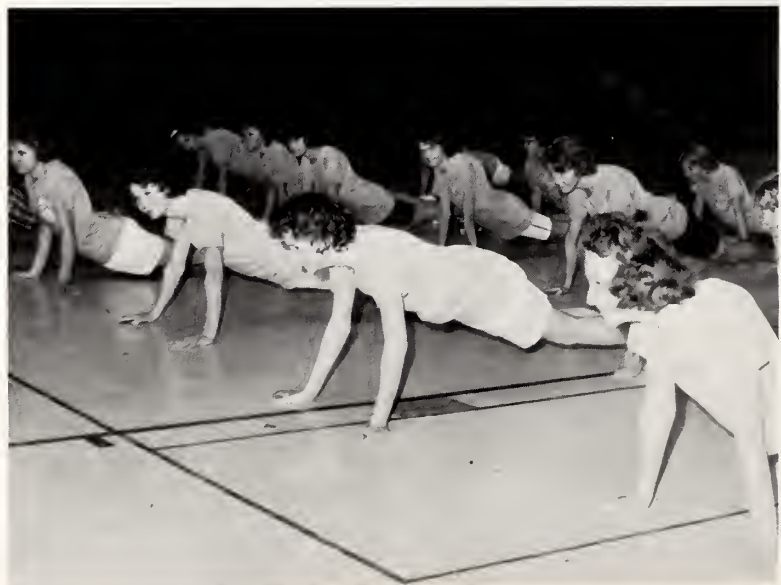

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Mr. Atkinson helps build strong bodies "twelve different ways."

BRAINS AND BRAWN ARE DEVELOPED IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

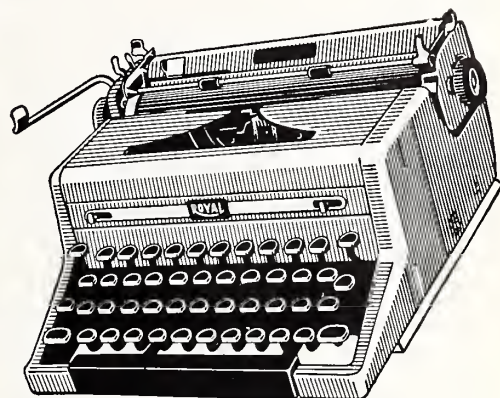

Exercises and dancing are two of the basic fundamentals in Mrs. Gillikin's Physical Education classes.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

"Bookkeeping and concentration are a team," says Mr. Edwards.

Shorthand and Notehand-Typing are also taught in the Business Department.

Time tests are essential.

Mr. Thompson, B.S.T.—"Before Student Teachers."

JUNIOR-SENIOR

MR. JAMES THIGPEN
B.S. Degree
East Carolina College

Keys to better futures and better lives have been applied by many students of Charles B. Aycock High School because of the dedication of Mr. James Thigpen and Mr. Irving Fornecker.

Both have served dutifully on the Aycock faculty for three years. Mr. Thigpen is Music Director at Aycock. Mr. Fornecker, math teacher, shares his love and ability for music by playing in the school band.

Their interest in the individual student and in our school, their many hours of work for Aycock, and their encouragement of the development of our talents and abilities cause THE GOVERNOR staff to proudly and appreciatively dedicate the Nineteen Hundred Sixty-Four edition of our yearbook to them.

custodian

The school custodians maintain the facilities of the school as well as arrange chairs in the gymnasium for various programs.

The school secretary is not only a friend to the students but also a very efficient worker.

Through careful planning, the cafeteria manager and her helpers provide food for the students and school personnel. They provide meals of varied menus for the week, meeting all the requirements of good nutrition.

MRS. MARGIE LANCASTER

THE LUNCHROOM
STAFF

1964 GOVERNOR

Every member of the annual staff has worked hard this year to publish a yearbook that captures the true school spirit at Charles B. Aycock.

Annual staff members this year are: Janis Seymour, Gwen Herring, Pat Barden, Ann Lee, Andy Beamon, Susie Sasser, Patricia Smith, Jo Carraway, George Thigpen, Dottie Alley, Linda Lynch, Diane Vail, Doyce Howell, Bobby Futrell, Beverly Gardner, J. K. Horne, Ricky Davis, Billy Newsome, Clifton Pike, Christie Thorne, Johnny Ray Jones, and co-editors Sandra Kirby and Diane Duke.

Bobby Futrell and Sherry Long are staff artists for the Governor.

Mrs. Green, advisor, and Mr. Snipes, co-advisor, have given much of their time this year to help meet the yearbook deadline.

STAFF

Sandra Kirby and Diane Duke have shown true leadership this year as Co-editors of the GOVERNOR.

Other annual staff officers are: Andy Beamon, business manager; Dottie Alley, secretary; Gwen Herring, Layout Chairman; Linda Lynch, organizations editor; Beverly Gardner, activities editor; Christie Thorne, class editor; and J. K. Horne, sports editor.

The layout committee has worked many hours this year deciding how each page of the yearbook should be laid out. Gwen Herring is Layout Chairman.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Each member of the student council is elected by his or her homeroom. They represent the students and help to establish better relations between the administration and the students. Mrs. Thornton is the advisor for the student council.

The officers of the student council are elected by the student body. They are: Pres.—Frankie Thigpen; V.-Pres.—Beverly Gardner; Sec.—Dottie Alley; and Treas.—Ann Outland.

The student council conducts the elections of the student council officers and class officers. Here the juniors are voting over because of a tie in the first elections.

THE EDUCATOR

The journalism class, under the supervision of Mr. Eugene L. Roberts, publishes the school newspaper. Aycock is the only school in the county system that offers a course in journalism.

The Educator, published monthly by members of the journalism class, appears as a part of the Goldsboro News-Argus. The paper, devoted entirely to school news, is written, edited, and designed by school editors.

Educator staff officers are: Editor—Anne Lewis; Feature editor—Andy Beamon; Sports editor—James Maples; Business manager—Willie Hicks; and Circulation manager—Diane Vail.

SAFETY COMES FIRST

SAFETY CLUB

The Safety club promotes safety in the school, home, and community. The club is sponsored by Mr. Mason. Officers are: Pres.—Neal Blow.

THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The F.H.A. is a club which helps prepare its members to be better homemakers and leaders in their school and community. Each year the club sponsors a fashion show. The county F.H.A. rally was held at C.B.A. this year. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Scott and Miss Kornegay. Officers are: Pres.—Nan Lancaster; V.-Pres.—Brenda Edmundson; Sec.—Nannie Ruth Huffman; Treas.—Cheryl Pierce.

THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The F.F.A. is an organization of farm boys working together to better the vocation of farming. The club has raised funds this year by selling candy. Officers are: Pres.—Gleen Ferrell; V.-Pres.—Greg Gurley; Sec.—Larry Sasser; Treas.—Douglas Edgerton.

LEARN BY DOING

HANDICRAFT CLUB

The members of the Handicraft club make interesting and useful articles out of wood, leather, and other materials. Mr. Crawley sponsors the club.

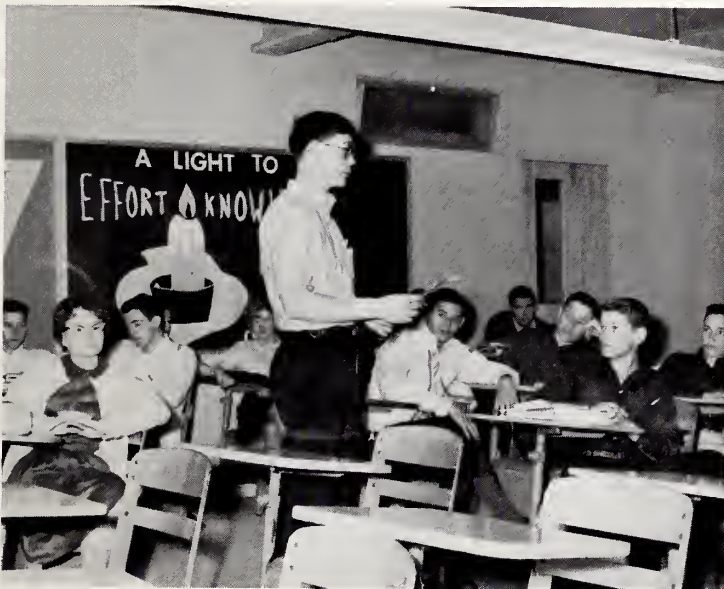

PHOTO CLUB

The Photo club promotes an interest in photography. The members learn how to take good pictures on their own. Each year the club sponsors a photo contest. Mr. Joyner is the sponsor of the club. Officers are: Pres.—Derrell Horne; V.-Pres.—Rickey Howell; Sec.—Jeannie Gurley; Treas.—Lorraine Crocker.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity club is composed of the members of the cheerleading, basketball, football, baseball, and track teams who have won letters in these sports. Coach Atkinson sponsors the club. Officers are: Pres.—George Thigpen; V.-Pres.—Larry Harris; Sec.—J. K. Horne; Treas.—Marcia Edmunson.

QUILL AND SCROLL RECOGNIZES JOURNALISTS

QUILL AND SCROLL CLUB

The Quill and Scroll club has as its purpose the encouraging and rewarding of individual student achievement in journalism and school publications. Mr. E. L. Roberts is the sponsor of the club. Officers are: Pres.—Gwen Herring; V.-Pres.—Diane Duke; Secretary—Christie Thorne; and Treas.—Frankie Thigpen.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The Future Nurses Club is made up of girls who have chosen nursing as a career. The sponsor is Mrs. Markham, the school nurse. Officers are: Pres.—Peggy Pope; V.-Pres.—Brenda Gail Sykes; Sec.—Sharon Smith; and Treas.—Mary Batson.

BETA CLUB

The purpose of the Beta Club is the promotion of honesty, service, and leadership. Students outstanding in scholarship and leadership are eligible for membership. Officers are: Pres.—Faye Kirby; V.-Pres.—Christie Thorne; Sec.—Linda Lynch; and Treas.—Gwen Herring. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Wilson.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science club was organized for the benefit of those who have an interest in any Scientific field. Members must be enrolled in a science course or have had at least one year of a high school science course. Miss Noble sponsors the club. Officers are: Pres.—Dwight Hare; V.-Pres.—Albert Elmore; Sec.-Treas.—Brenda Goodman; Program Chairman—Ronnie Thompson.

MATH CLUB

The math club creates for its members an interest in the field of mathematics. It creates a feeling of working math for pleasure as well as treating it as a serious subject. Mr. Fornecker sponsors the club.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club was organized this year for those students especially interested in cheering for our varsity teams to create better school spirit. Mrs. Scott sponsors the pep club.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library club sells paper-back books each year to earn money to buy new library books for the students to enjoy. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Thornton, our school librarian. Officers are: Pres.—Pat Barden; V.Pres.—Bill Wiggs; Sec.—Nannie Ruth Huffman; Treas.—Jalene Austin.

BUS DRIVERS CLUB

The Bus Drivers club is made up of the bus drivers to Aycock and the feeder schools. The members discuss safety and bus driving problems. Officers are: Pres.—Fred Baker; V.Pres.—Richard Pate; Sec.-Treas.—Jimmy Wooten.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The members of the F.T.A. plan to teach the students of tomorrow. The club creates an interest in the teaching profession and makes the members familiar with the duties, qualifications, and education of a teacher. Mr. Boykin sponsors the club. Officers are: Pres.—Audrey Howell; V.Pres.—Cheryl Pierce; Sec.-Treas.—Janis Seymour.

"VENI, VIDI, VICI"

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club has programs which are entertaining and which help them to learn more about Roman ways of living. This creates more interest and promotes a better understanding of the Latin language. The club is sponsored by Mr. Snipes. Officers are: Pres.—Andy Beamon; V.-Pres.—Carl Kirby; Sec.—Ben Lane; Treas.—Bobby Russell.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The F.B.L.A. promotes an interest in business subjects and teaches its members how to prepare for a business career. Members of the club are enrolled in commercial courses. Mr. Edwards sponsors the club. Officers are: Pres.—Rebecca Stone; V.-Pres.—Faye Kirby; Sec.—Jackie Ginn; Treas.—Jeannie Gurley.

FRENCH CLUB

The French club promotes an interest in the French language, the people, the way of living, and the customs of France. Mrs. Cox sponsors the club. Officers are: Pres.—Kenneth Ivey; V.-Pres.—Carol Lee; Sec.—Jo Carraway; Treas.—Phyllis Lancaster.

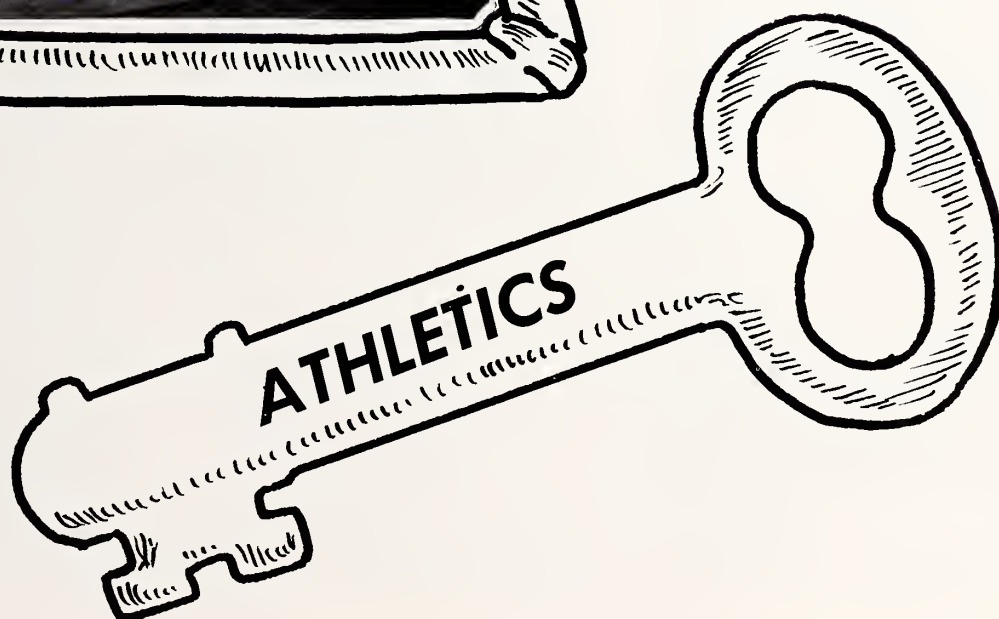

IN MEMORIAM

THOMAS LANE

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

HOMECOMING DISPLAYS 1963

The second annual homecoming of Charles B. Aycock was opened formally when the classes finished their exhibits. The celebration was highlighted by the crowning of the homecoming queen and the big dance, which followed the game.

The Junior Class won the Homecoming exhibit with 71st in Reverse.

The Senior Class worked very hard to get the effects of a jungle scene. Jungle drums were heard in the background.

The Freshman class worked very hard on their first exhibit. They were determined to get off to a good start.

The Sophomore Class worked over their exhibit very enthusiastically.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

MISS DOTTIE ALLEY

BONFIRE AND DANCE

The Bonfire and homecoming dance arouse much school spirit. The Bonfire was a very successful and thrilling event for everyone who attended.

HOMECOMING —GREAT SUCCESS

The dance was a very big event as you can see by the fun everyone is having.

DRAMATICS CLASS PRESENTS

IT'S A GREAT LIFE

Darrell Mitchell and Johnny Jones act out their big scene.

Pat Barden has Billy Newsome on his knees for probably the first and last time.

The play cast takes a curtain call.

Martha Wood honors Mrs. Green on behalf of the cast, for her help with the play.

Billy Newsome and Darrell Mitchell feel lost in the back stage excitement.

Mr. Thompson, Mr. Keel, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Webber, and Mr. Gillikin took up money at our cold football games.

One of our many enjoyable dances which we often had after ballgames.

The student body has an outdoor pep rally led by the cheerleaders.

The Falconettes and Falconaires, led by Mr. Thigpen, entertain the student body.

Wilma Futrell, Carolyn Aycock, and Sandra Edgerton wait patiently in line for lunch.

Mr. Keel fights for the ball as Aycock's faculty plays New Hope's faculty.

EXCITEMENT

The annual staff and Mrs. Green work very hard all year to finish the annual.

The crowd looks on as Roland Strickland works to win the Ping-Pong championship.

Mr. Keel's Biology class dissect frogs.

The Falconettes and Falconaires are thrilled over finally receiving their records.

Mr. Dan Moore, candidate for Governor, visits our school.

Mr. Snipes' homeroom enjoy themselves during their Christmas party.

Outstanding members of the newspaper and annual staff are initiated into the Quill and Scroll.

Seniors proudly show off rings after a long wait.

FRESHMEN TACKLE NEW EXPERIENCES

The Freshman class vote for class officers for the first time at C.B.A.

This is not the way we dress every day. It is just F.H.A. initiation.

Kay, Dale, and Judy have a pie eating contest.

James Horne, David E. Lewis, William Lane, and Barbara Smith are Freshman officers.

STUDENT COUNCIL ASSEMBLY

Beverly Gardner, Vice-President, greets the students and faculty and welcomes them to the first Student Council Assembly.

Frankie Thigpen, President, installs new officers for the year 1964-65.

ELECTION DAY

Ronnie Thompson takes time to vote for his favorite candidate for President.

Freshmen vote by secret ballot.

Everyone had fun at the elections dance while the candidates awaited anxiously the announcement of the winners. The eighth graders from the feeder schools were also present.

CANTATA

The Dramatics Class and the Music Department combine for the first time to present the Christmas Cantata, "The Everlasting Light."

The Angel of the Lord (Faye Beamon) appears to the Shepards. (Darrell Mitchell, James Maples, and Gary Fahnestock).

The Christ child is born. Joseph was played by Jimmy Summerlin and Mary by Margaret Fletcher.

The Birth of the Christ child is awaited.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

(l. to r.) Jimmy Davis, Betty Howell, Ricky Davis, Marcia Edmunson, Dwight Wade, Deborah Davis, Jeannie Gurley, and Larry Harris competed for Mr. and Miss Merry Christmas.

Everyone dressed semiformal for the Big Christmas Dance.

Ricky Davis, Deborah Davis were crowned Mr. and Miss Merry Christmas. Jeannie Gurley and Larry Harris were runners-up.

SPRING FESTIVAL

The Speech and Dramatics class presented two plays, The Death of a Hired Man and The Friendly Persuader, on Senior Day, May 15.

Diane and Curtis, as Mary and Warren, attempt their first dramatic parts in The Death of a Hired Man. Also a first was the use of abstract scenery.

The kid sister knows every thing in The Friendly Persuader.

SENIORS RECEIVE CAPS AND GOWNS

Seniors are excited as they get their first look at their caps and gowns after a long wait.

Hundreds of flowers were made by members of the junior class.

Linda Price and Claudia Braswell are in dangerous positions, putting up crepe paper to hide the bleachers.

JUNIORS ARE BUSY WEEKS AHEAD OF TIME MAKING PLANS AND PREPARATIONS FOR THE PROM.

Mrs. Griffin helps junior girls in making decorations for the stage scene.

Refreshment time becomes a moment of relaxation between dances.

JUNIOR-VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders had a lot of team spirit and worked hard and enthusiastically for the Baby Falcons.

l. to r.: Judy Pope, Barbara Howell, Brenda Lancaster, Barbara Smith, Vera Van Hoy, Linda Snead, Deborah Davis, Vicky Best, and Phyllis Pike.

MAJORETTES

The majorettes worked many long hours with the band to learn the many different steps and baton twirls.

CHEERLEADERS

Their vim and vigor urge our team to victory. Their lusty yells fill every silence. They are the Varsity Cheerleaders of Charles B. Aycock. They are the essence of our school spirit. They always provide that last needed spark of enthusiasm.

LINDA PRICE
Head

1963-1964

The Cheerleaders play a leading role in the activities of the school. They made signs and cultivate the student body's spirit. The cheerleaders are elected by the student body and hold practice once a week.
